Rizal Sanip is a home-grown drummer, whose passion for music has propelled him into musicals starting with “Honk!” in 2002. Serving as a regular in the Singapore Armed Forces Central Band for 13 years, he’s had the honour of a few roles - percussion section leader, drum major, arranger/guitarist for dance band and emcee for concerts, to name a few. Involved in ceremonial segment of Singapore National Day celebrations from 1990 to 2003.

A studio musician as well, he plays drums, percussions and trumpet.

Rizal’s working relationship with Pangdemonium, Dream Academy, Wild Rice Productions, SRT, Vizpro, Toy Factory and Base Entertainment has provided him with ample opportunities to work in theatre productions as a session drummer. He has also played instrumental roles in nurturing young minds, teaching music at both international and local schools in Singapore.

Touted as a witty, highly sensitive, and versatile drummer who responds to all situations with grace, talent, and finely-honed skill, Rizal has a great sense of musicality in which he puts the music above all else. Never overplaying or underplaying, Rizal fills every role in the right vein to contribute to the overall beauty of the musical moment.

Rizal is currently pursuing a degree in Music at LASALLE College of the Arts to enrich his experience as a veteran musician. He feels blessed to have a career in music and is thrilled to continually be involved with major theatrical productions both locally and exported abroad.

Quirky trade - Speaks fluent Hokkien.
